I. Case of Wallace Young, Educator License No.: 103847

Kenny Goza, serving as presiding officer for the Commission Hearing Subcommittee, called the hearing to order at 9:02 a.m.

The Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act prohibits educational agencies from disclosing student's personally identifiable information without parental permission. Based on argument from Joseph Runnels, counsel for the Office of Educator Misconduct, the Commission considered going into executive session to prevent the release of student information.

Mary Margaret King moved that the Commission Hearing Subcommittee go into executive session to prevent the release of student information. Corey Welch seconded the motion, and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to go into executive session. The following individuals remained in the room: Kenny Goza, Mary Margaret King, Corey Welch, Erin Meyer, Joseph Runnels, James Thompson, Michael C. Martin, Chad Callender, and the Court Reporter.

After all exhibits were received into evidence and testimony heard, Mary Margaret King moved that the Commission Hearing Subcommittee change the purpose of remaining in executive session to deliberation and findings concerning the License of Educator Wallace Young. Corey Welch seconded the motion and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to go into executive session.

Corey Welch moved that the Commission Hearing Subcommittee suspend Immediately License No. 103847 held by Wallace Young based on the violation of Miss Code Ann. Section 37-3-2(12)(h). Additionally, that after December 31, 2016, the Respondent may petition for reinstatement of Respondent's educator license pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 37-3-2(14)(a) and the Rules of Procedure Governing Disciplinary Proceedings of the Commission. Prior to petitioning the Commission for reinstatement, the Respondent, at his own expense, shall complete a minimum of one (1) seminar or course work related to ethics in education, and a minimum of one (1) seminar or course work related to teacher student boundaries, and shall submit proof of his attendance and successful completion of the required courses of study. Mary Margaret King seconded the motion and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to suspend immediately license no. 103847 held by Wallace Young.

On a motion by Corey Welch, seconded by Mary Margaret King, the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to come out of executive session.

This hearing adjourned at 1:25 p.m.

II. Case of Jeffrey Broome, Educator License No.: 207970

Kenny Goza serving as presiding officer for the Commission Hearing Subcommittee called the hearing to order at 1:30 p.m.

After all exhibits were received into evidence and testimony heard, Mary Margaret King moved to consider going into executive session. Corey Welch seconded the motion and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to consider going into executive session.

Once the parties cleared the room, Mary Margaret King moved that the Commission Hearing Subcommittee go into executive session for deliberation and findings concerning the License of Educator Jeffrey Broome. Corey Welch seconded the motion and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to go into executive session.

Corey Welch moved that the Commission Hearing Subcommittee reinstate Educator License No.: 207970 currently suspended and previously issued to Jeffrey Broome.

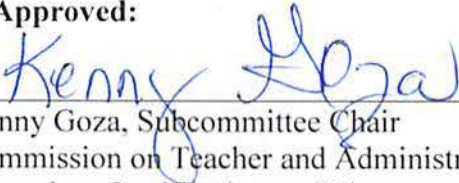

As conditions of his reinstatement, the petitioner shall continue to participate in weekly telephonic conferences with Professional Boundaries, Inc., until he gains employment with a school district and thereafter for a period of one (1) year following his employment with a school district. The petitioner shall immediately notify the Office of Educator Misconduct upon gaining employment with a school district. The Petitioner shall submit proof of his ongoing attendance and participation quarterly to the Office of Educator Misconduct until expiration of the one (1) year period following his employment with the school district. The failure of the Petitioner to comply with the aforementioned requirements shall automatically result in the immediate suspension of the Petitioner's license. Mary Margaret King seconded the motion and the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to reinstate Educator License No.: 207970.

On a motion by Corey Welch, seconded by Mary Margaret King, the Commission Hearing Subcommittee unanimously voted to come out of executive session.
