Let's Find Out About It:

Preparation: Set up materials.

"In Sometimes I'm Bombaloo, Katie becomes 'Bombaloo' when she gets upset. She says her face is like a monster. She is not really a monster, but the mask helps her to seem like a monster. What do you notice?"	Show illustrations. Children respond.
"Here are masks. What do you notice? What emotion do you think this mask represents?"	Show images or sample masks. Children respond.
"A mask can represent an emotion, like Katie's Bombaloo mask. People can also wear masks to disguise themselves - pretend they are someone/thing else. Why would someone do that?"	Children respond.
"This week in the Creative Arts, you can make a mask that represents an emotion or a mask you can use to disguise yourself."
