BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

Laundry is clothes and linens that need to be cleaned or have just been cleaned. Linens are towels, bed sheets, or tablecloths.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

The more you use your clothes and linens, the dirtier they get.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

People do laundry all around the world.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people
wash their laundry in a river.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

When our clothes and linens get dirty, we put them in a hamper, bag, or laundry basket.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people wash their laundry using pots and pans.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

Washing all your laundry at the same time can stain or rip them.
That's why it is important to sort laundry by color or fabric.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people wash their laundry with a washboard.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

Your laundry also uses a special kind of soap called laundry detergent. There are a lot of different detergents to help clean all kinds of different clothes.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people use a washing machine to wash their laundry.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

After you choose the right kind of detergent for your laundry, you can begin to wash them in a washing machine by adding water and your detergent.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people use detergent to clean their laundry.

Some people use bars of soap to clean their laundry.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

When your laundry is washed, it needs to be dried. You dry your laundry by placing it in a dryer or drying machine.

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people hang their laundry on a clothesline to dry.

Some people use a drying machine to dry their laundry.

BOOK 1: The Journey of Laundry

Once your laundry is dried, it will need to be folded and put away so that it can be ready to be used again!

BOOK 2: Laundry Around The World

Some people wash and dry their clothes at an outdoor laundromat.
