Let's Find Out About It:
Preparation: Set up materials.
"In Nana in the City, the boy thought the city was frightening. After he wore the cape his Nana knit for him, he felt brave. What do you notice?"	Show illustrations. Children respond.
"The illustrator used colors to depict how the boy saw the city. What do you notice?"	Show the contrast of the darker illustrations before Nana knits his cape to the lighter illustrations after he wears the cape.  Children respond.
"Here is paint. I can create tints - make the color lighter - by mixing it with white paint. What do you notice?"  "I can create shades - make the color darker - by mixing it with black paint. What do you notice?"	Show materials. Model, using different amounts of white and black paint.  Children respond.
"I can record the tints and shades of I created. What do you notice?"	Point to a subway stop near the school and a destination. Children respond.
