Integrates innovative technologies and ethical use of digital resources across the MSCCR Standards and provides PD to sustain it.

Evaluates and curates a diverse collection of resources that support the MSCCR Standards, students interests, and the needs of the school community.

Instructs students to navigate and master a full range of library media, research, information fluency, and digital literacy skills.

Empowers ALL students to become lifelong readers with access to print and digital books that address diverse perspectives to inspire inquiry and creativity.

Provides equitable access to culturally responsive resources that inspire personal growth and promote a culture of belonging.

Collaborates and communicates with teachers to help support the curriculum content being taught in the classroom.