AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Employment Policy

It is the policy and practice of the Mississippi Department of Education to comply fully with the Americans with Disabilities Act and ensure equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons with disabilities. The department is committed to ensuring non-discrimination in all terms, conditions and privileges of employment. All employment practices and activities, whether provided or conducted by the Department, will be conducted on a non-discriminatory basis.

Recruiting, advertising and job application procedures have been reviewed and provide persons with disabilities meaningful employment opportunities. Pre-employment inquiries are made only regarding an applicant’s ability to perform the duties of the position, not one’s disabbling condition.

Reasonable accommodation is available to all employees and applicants. Work sites will be accessible. All employment decisions are based on the merits of the situation in accordance with defined criteria, not the disability of the individual.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are entitled to equal pay and other forms of compensation as well as in job assignments, classification, and organizational structures.

The Department is also committed to not discriminating against any qualified employee or applicant because he or she is related to or associated with a person with a disability. ANTI-HARASSMENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (continued)

Any applicant or employee alleging harassment may:

1. File a grievance with the immediate supervisor in accordance with the standard grievance procedural steps;

2. If the source of the harassment is the employee’s supervisor, the employee may skip a level of management by proceeding to Step Two and filing the grievance directly with the harassing supervisor’s supervisor; or

3. File the grievance with the agency Human Resources Director, Deputy Superintendent, or Education Accountability Director or State Superintendent.

Regardless of outcome, all grievances alleging harassment shall be forwarded to the appointing authority.

Acts or statements of a retaliatory nature against employees who file grievances based upon harassment and who utilize the grievance procedure outlines and referenced above are strictly prohibited.

In addition to the agency Human Resources Director, the designee of the State Personnel Director shall be available to advise and counsel employees on the grievance procedure. In such cases,

1. The agency Human Resources Director or staff designee of the State Personnel Director may be advised to assist in the filing and resolution of a grievance; or

2. In cases of widespread harassment, the employee may be advised to file an appeal directly with the Employee Appeals Board without exhausting agency level remedies.

Informal Redress of Complaints

In addition to the grievance procedure referenced above, employees are encouraged, where feasible, to communicate directly with one another to assure the prompt discontinuation of behavior found to be offensive. The MDE respects and supports the right of each employee to communicate directly with other employees to request that any offensive conduct be discontinued. However, informal redress of complaints is not required and a complaining party may proceed to file a grievance in any situation in which informal redress is not feasible or desirable.
Prohibition Against Retaliation

Any and all acts of retaliation against persons who utilize the grievance procedure are expressly prohibited. Similarly, the MDE prohibits retaliation against witnesses or any other employees who might be called on to participate in investigations of complaints.

Confidentiality

Complaints will be handled in strict confidence whenever possible. The necessity of a thorough investigation, however, may make complete confidentiality impossible. The MDE will release information relating to an investigation only where necessary and on a “need to know” basis.

Evidence

The complaining party is encouraged to maintain and deliver to management any and all evidence of harassment, including diary entries and notes of dates, time and locations of conduct as well as names of witnesses to each instance of harassment.

Duty to Participate in Investigations

Employees with knowledge concerning complaints of harassment or discrimination have a duty to participate in investigations by providing complete and timely information. Withholding information or failing to cooperate in a good faith manner will be considered a disciplinary infraction and may result in disciplinary action.
