21st Century Community Learning Centers (CCLC)
Year End Performance Program Evaluation

Karen Austin
State 21st CCLC Director, Office of Federal Programs

21st Century Community Learning Centers (CCLC) Year End Performance Program Evaluation

In accordance with the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) of 1993, the US Department of Education has identified a series of indicators for the 21st CCLC program. This evaluation allows the Mississippi Department of Education an opportunity to measure the success of the state's 21st CCLC programs in their effort to improve student academic achievement. Each performance measure should yield an improvement of at least 60% among regular attendees. The information obtained in the program evaluation will be compared to data from the Profile and Performance Information Collection System (PPICS) and Sub-grantees' 21st CCLC Continuation applications.
