Note:

*Subject to change pending the outcome of ongoing onsite investigative audit.

Stayed pending the outcome of the request for the Governor to declare a state of emergency. If the Governor declares a state of emergency, the school district is subject to having its accreditation withdrawn by the Commission on School Accreditation. If the Governor does not declare a state of emergency, the Commission on School Accreditation may either request approval from the State Board of Education to withdraw the District's accreditation after a show cause hearing, or may choose to maintain a probationary status.
