

Chapter 79: Textbooks

Rule 79.2 Regulations. Pursuant to authority of Mississippi Code Section 37-7-301(o), each school district shall have the authority to determine for what purposes the Education Enhancement Fund allocation for textbooks and other educational materials shall be expended as follows:

1. The local school district may define what constitutes a "textbook" and may purchase said books from any available supplier. Said textbooks shall remain the property of the local school district.
2. The local school district may define what constitutes "other educational materials" and may purchase said materials from any available supplier.
3. The local school district may define what constitutes "technology enhancement projects" and shall limit the expenditures for said purposes to the proportion each district's ADA bears to the statewide total ADA applied to $2,000,000 as determined by the State Department of Education.
