Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:
The student will assess and analyze five work habits, which contribute to success in the workplace.
The student will complete a personal resume of work experiences for home and school.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):
Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, and objectives.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Students will participate in question-and-answer sessions.
Students will develop a skill-based resume. Students will be able to explain resume-writing situations in which an ethical dilemma may present itself. Students will be able to project the personal consequences and the ethics involved in presenting oneself in a positive, yet truthful, light. Self-evaluation tools will be used.
Lesson Preparation

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Essential Questions:</th>
<th>What is a resume and what is its purpose? Why are personal, ethical, and work habits important to career decision making? How do these components relate to job-seeking skills?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Engagement (hook):</td>
<td>How will employers know who you are and what your capabilities may be before they have seen you? What is a resume? What skills and experiences have you had that would be valuable to employers and to employability in general?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Procedures

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Students will review prior prior guidance lesson pointing out the importance of personal characteristics and work habits in the job-seeking, -getting and -keeping process.</td>
<td>1. Students will identify personal characteristics and work habits and relate them to ethical decision-making at school as well as on the job.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Continue with, “A resume is a short story of our life experiences, interests, and abilities. Today, we will start that process. Today, you will be completing an activity sheet that will give you a chance to ‘talk in writing’ about yourself. You will be reviewing and reflecting what you have said about yourself from the point of view of an employer.” Provide students with the It’s All about Me! activity sheet.</td>
<td>2. Students will complete the activity sheet.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Once the students have completed the activity sheet, ask students to take the role of a prospective employer. Does the information on the It’s All About Me! activity sheet reflect who the student is and his or her capabilities? How is the information presented? Based on what’s presented, how will the individual’s academic skills and abilities be viewed? What about personal skills and work habits?</td>
<td>3. Students will engage in a critical self-evaluation of their responses on the It’s All About Me! activity sheet. The final question—“Will I be called for an interview with the employer?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. OPTIONAL: The counselor may allow time for students to work on a computer to complete a resume based on information from the activity sheet.</td>
<td>4. Optional: Students will complete their resumes using computer software.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Information will be inserted into the students’ Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolios for review and discussion throughout Middle School (See Unit 1, Lesson 1: Guidelines for Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio)
Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will give students an opportunity to update the resume information.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
Activity Sheet: It's All About Me!

Your life experiences can lead to opportunities in the future. When you are applying for a job, a resume is a way to introduce yourself and to tell about your experiences.
