<https://fns-prod.azureedge.net/sites/default/files/113-1.pdf>

- Must advise the reviewed entity in writing of findings and recommendations
- Federal or State reviewer must secure information as necessary to make the determination of compliance
- Routine reviews conducted as required by program regulations.
- Selection criteria; unusual fluctuations of racial/ethnic groups in service area, number of discrimination complaints filed against the agency, unresolved findings from previous reviews, info from grassroots orgs., State officials, etc...

Noncompliance - factual finding that a Civil Rights requirement is not being adhered to.

Achieving Voluntary Compliance – if found noncompliant, immediate steps to become compliant must be taken.

Termination / Suspension of Assistance – any action must be limited to the agency found noncompliant and limited to the particular program which noncompliance was found.

This is a requirement!

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 prohibit discrimination and ensure equal opportunity for persons with disabilities in employment, State and local government services (Title II), public accommodations, commercial facilities, and transportation (Title III). Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 also prohibits discrimination on the basis of handicap in programs or activities receiving federal financial assistance.

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and its regulations require recipients of federal financial assistance, i.e. SAs, local agencies, or other sub-recipients, to take reasonable steps to ensure “meaningful” access to information and services they provide for individuals with limited English proficiency (LEP).

What factors should be considered to determine what constitutes reasonable steps?

- The number or proportion of LEP persons eligible to be served or likely to be encountered by the program or grantee;
- The frequency with which LEP persons come in contact with the program;
- The nature and importance of the program, activity, or service provided by the program to people's lives; and
- The resources available to the grantee/recipient and costs.

Meaningful access is accomplished by providing reasonable, timely, appropriate, competent/qualified, accurate and effective language services to individuals with LEP when accessing recipient programs and activities.

USDA LEP Policy Guidance can be found at:

<https://www.fns.usda.gov/cr/limited-English-proficiency-lep>

Federal regulations also prohibit discrimination of LEP persons on the ground of national origin (7 CFR Part 15).
