

Section I

Early Learning Collaborative Teacher and Assistant Teacher Requirements

The Early Learning Collaborative Act of 2013 requires that teachers and assistant teachers in any early learning entity of the Early Learning Collaborative classrooms be qualified in the following manner:

(b) A teacher shall possess a * * * BACHELOR'S DEGREE in early childhood education, child development, or an equivalent field. A teacher may also possess a bachelor's degree in any field and have at least twelve (12) credit hours of coursework in early childhood education, child development, or an equivalent field approved by an institution granting a bachelor's degree in the early childhood education, child development, or an equivalent field; or have a bachelor's degree in any field and have completed a specialized early childhood training program deemed equivalent by the State Department of Education to twelve (12) hours of approved coursework.

(c) An assistant teacher shall possess * * * an ASSOCIATE'S DEGREE in early childhood education, child development, or an equivalent field; or an associate's degree in any field and a Child Development Associate credential, a Montessori certification, or an equivalent certification. Public school assistant teachers in the voluntary prekindergarten program established by the Early Learning Collaborative Act of 2013 may be required by the State Department of Education to meet the definition of a highly qualified paraprofessional in addition to these requirements.
